Sunday of the Myrrh Bearing Women - 3rd Sunday of Pascha

On the third day after Jesus died on the cross, some women took lovely smelling perfumed ointment called myrrh to put on Jesus' body. When they arrived at the grave where their friend Joseph buried Jesus, they noticed that the big stone which closed the grave was moved out of the way. A young man in the grave said to them: "Don't be afraid! Jesus is Risen! Go tell everyone!"

Angels have the greatest job. They often get to tell people Good News! This time an Angel cried out to the One full of Grace, (Mary)

“O chaste Virgin, rejoice! And again I say, Rejoice! Your Son has risen from the tomb on the third day, and raised the dead.”

Then the angel turns towards the city and says:

“Let all people rejoice! Shine, shine, O new Jerusalem, for the glory of the Lord has risen upon you! Exult now and be glad, O Sion!”

Then the angel turns towards Mary again and says:

“And you, O chaste Mother of God, take delight in the resurrection of your Son.”
