Sixth Sunday of Pascha - Sunday of the Man Born Blind

There was a man who never could see. Jesus made some mud and created eyes for him. Then Jesus told the blind man to wash in a pool that was named Siloam. When he did so he could see! Some cranky leaders of the people did not like that Jesus healed the man, so they tried to get the man who once was blind to say bad things about Jesus, but the man saw that Jesus was good, and that the cranky leaders did not want to see it.

You can read today's Gospel in your bible at home with your family. It's found in John 9:1-38

Can you see all 12 differences?
